

Digital signature application form

Not for use in the UK

In response to CV-19 we will consider accepting certain forms using digital signatures via DocuSign or AdobeSign. In order for us to consider your firm, we require you to fully complete and submit this form to us. We'll then let you know when you've been accepted.

All references to Quilter International, we, us and our in this form refer to Quilter International Isle of Man Limited and Quilter International Ireland dac.

Important information

It is very important to note that this is a work-around to help you if you cannot submit forms via paper or our online service, Wealth Interactive. If you need to use digital signatures, you should make your clients aware that there are risks associated with emailing documents from unencrypted email accounts.

Both DocuSign and AdobeSign provide a full audit trail via a certificate which includes the email address contacted for the electronic signature(s) to be provided. We require evidence of this certificate to be included with the instruction provided to Quilter International, and the documented email address must match our records on file.

We also want to make you aware that it is your responsibility to undertake necessary due diligence procedures to protect your clients when using digital signature software. Quilter International will not take responsibility for any claims relating to digital signatures such as fraud that arise from the use of digitally signed documents.

There may be occasions where we will need sight of a wet signature and we may need you to send this to us before we can process the relevant client application or instruction. This can cause a delay so it's important to make you aware.

Our online service, Wealth Interactive, is the safest and most efficient way for you and your clients to do business with us. You can skip admin queues and instructions are processed quicker. For more information on other options available during the pandemic, please check our website at
